Select Classical School at Oxford, North Caro-

Select Classical School at Oxford, North Carolina.

CINCE the establishment of this school in Janubary, 1851, by the present principal, James H. Horner, A. M., it has received a large and steadily increasing measure of the public favor, as attested by an extensive patronage from abroad and its annual delegation of matriculates to the University at Chapel Hill. Hereafter it will be conducted under the joint supervision of Mr. Horner and Professor A. G. Rown, late of the said University, who has been many years a teacher of the ancient classics in that institution. Rev. T. J. Horner will continue to be an assistant instructor, and others well qualified for the office appointed as occasion may require.

The plan of studies is designed to prepare young men for advanced classes in college, and also to fit these who may not expect or desire to obtain the benefit of a fall collegistic course for respectable stations in life by instruction in the ordinary branches of a sound English education. For the sake of the greatest efficiency, the number of classes will be limited, so that ample time may be devoted to examination and lecture upon the subject of every lesson by each instructor in his own department.

Care will be taken also to adapt the text books and modes of instruction to the latest advancement of knowledge in each of the several branches. While the methods recommended by experience, shall be consistently preserved, no expense will be sparred to provide the best apparatus for the work.

Important arrangements are in preparation to increase the advan tages and promote the perinanent success of the schools.

The instructors are natives of North Carolina, have been long engaged in the profession, and are authorized to refer those who may desire further information as to their personal or official qualifications to many distinguished citizens of this and other States in the South. Among these are 10n. Wen. A. Graham, Hon. W. P. Mangum, george was a commenter of the board of trustees.
